information

Discover North Wales, the dramatic and picturesque corner of Wales. Wherever you go, the scenery is sure to be amazing, blessed with breathtaking mountains, lush valleys, dramatic coastlines, hundreds of castles, and a rich heritage, Wales is a beautiful part of Britain. Mold is a beautiful historic market town nestling beneath the Clwydian Hills situated in the heart of Flintshire, surrounded by beautiful Welsh countryside and is the ideal base to explore all North Wales. There has been a street market in Mold since medieval times and today it is still the biggest in North Wales. With visits to Llandudno, historic Chester, Llangollen and a boat trip on the amazing Llangollen Canal crossing the world famous Pontcysyllte Aqueduct, this tour has everything plus more!
