information

Alum Chine is at the very west of Bournemouth and is famous for its colourful beach huts and award winning Blue Flag beach, beautiful wooded Chine spanned by a suspension bridge and the award winning Alum Chine Tropical Gardens. Bournemouth is without doubt, one of England's finest holiday resorts, overlooking a glorious sandy bay, with clean beaches, a long level promenade backed by spectacular rugged cliffs. The delightful 'chines', small valleys in the cliffs, offer shady groves leading to the shore. The award winning Lower Gardens and Central Gardens in particular provide a lush green contrast to the nearby beach. Bournemouth Land Train runs from Alum Chine to Bournemouth along the stunning seafront, providing a great way to explore the resort.
