information

Tenby is a uniquely attractive resort, it's probably the most iconic, quaint and charming seaside resort in Wales. The pastel coloured buildings, narrow streets, fortified walls and the quality of the light from the shimmering bays give it an atmosphere which is reminiscent of the Mediterranean. Tenby has four magnificent sandy beaches and a delightful picture book harbour which is always busy with pleasure craft and the regular ferries which serve nearby Caldey Island monastery, a 'must' to explore during your stay. Tenby is known within Wales as 'The Jewel in the Crown', majestically positioned on the spectacularly beautiful 'Welsh Riviera'. Tenby is part of the stunning Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, where rolling hills meet the sea. You'll fall in love with this charming resort, all nestled within the medieval walls, giving it a unique character that's hard to find elsewhere.
