information

Weston-super-Mare is one of the finest traditional seaside resorts in the country with its splendid golden beaches which stretch for miles and a flat promenade follows the bay with superb views of the Bristol Channel. Visit the famous Grand Pier, gleaming after a £51 million refurbishment and the town also boasts many shops and cultural attractions. Grove Park is a beautiful park incorporating Jill's Garden, in memory of local TV presenter, Jill Dando. As a base from which to tour the scenic beauty of the surrounding countryside the resort is second to none. Cheddar Gorge is the largest gorge in Britain near the village of Cheddar in the Mendip Hills. Cheddar is also the original home of the very English Cheddar Cheese. Weston-super-Mare is Somerset's best known holiday seaside resort.
