5 Days/4 Nights

information

The warmest of welcomes await you on the English Riviera, South Devon's beautiful bay. With its mild climate, sparkling blue waters, award winning beaches and famous palm trees, it's easy to see why Torbay is known as the English Riviera. Torquay is set in one of Britain's most beautiful bays and is rightly known as the 'Jewel of the English Riviera' and enjoys one of the most idyllic locations found on the South Coast. Take a stroll around its bustling picturesque harbour and waterfront promenade. Stunning views can be seen just about everywhere across the bay, out over the English Channel. Beautifully positioned on Torbay's sea front we have the elegant award winning Livermead House Hotel, on the waters edge with breathtaking views overlooking the sea by the picturesque Livermead Sands beach and next to Corbyn Head between Torquay and Paignton.
